INFORMATION FOR STUDENTS FOR WRITING SYNOPSIS

1. Students have to complete all sections of synopsis electronically first and then get print-out for signature from supervisor
2. Don't do copy and paste from web
3. For any query contact with your peers
4. There is demy copy available for your guidelines how to complete this synopsis form
5. You will be guilty of plagiarism when you extract information from a book, article, web page or any other information source without acknowledging the source and pretend that it is your own work. This doesn't only apply to cases where you quote verbatim, but also when you present someone else's work in a somewhat amended (paraphrased) format or when you use someone else's arguments or ideas without the necessary acknowledgement. You are also guilty of plagiarism if you copy and paste information directly from an electronic source (e.g., a web site, e-mail message, electronic journal article, or CD ROM), even if you acknowledge the source.
6. You are not allowed to submit another student's previous work as your own. You are furthermore not allowed to let anyone copy or use your work with the intention of presenting it as his/her own.

Students who are guilty of plagiarism will forfeit all credits for the work concerned. In addition, the matter will be referred to the Committee for Discipline (Students) for a ruling. Plagiarism is considered a serious violation of the University's regulations and may lead to your suspension from the University.

For the period that you are a student at any Department of MUST declaration must accompany all written work that is submitted for evaluation. No written work will be accepted unless the declaration has been completed and is included in synopsis.
